Dear Friends,

What a remarkable year it has been for CASA of the Mid-Shore.

This year marked both a celebration of our past and an exciting step toward our future as we bid a heartfelt farewell to our long-time Executive Director, Robin Davenport, following more than 35 years of dedicated service. Robin's visionary leadership, unwavering compassion, and steadfast commitment to children laid the strong foundation on which our organization continues to grow. We are deeply grateful for her extraordinary legacy.

As we celebrated our 36th year of service, we were reminded that the strength of CASA of the Mid-Shore has always come from the people who believe in our mission. Our dedicated CASA volunteers, committed Board of Directors, compassionate staff, generous in-kind partners, community collaborators, and hundreds of faithful supporters came together to ensure that children who have experienced abuse, neglect, or abandonment had a caring advocate by their side. We are sincerely thankful for each and every person who makes this work possible.

Together, we are changing the lives of children across Talbot, Dorchester, Queen Anne's, and Kent Counties. National research continues to demonstrate the meaningful impact of CASA volunteers, showing that children with a CASA advocate are more likely to find safe, permanent homes, succeed in school, and are less likely to re-enter the foster care system. Perhaps most importantly, for many of the children we serve, their CASA volunteer is the one consistent, caring adult in an otherwise uncertain world.

As you read through this Annual Report, we hope you will see the incredible difference that a compassionate community can make. Every success story, every milestone, and every child served reflects the collective generosity, dedication, and belief that every child deserves the opportunity to grow up safe, supported, and hopeful.

On behalf of everyone at CASA of the Mid-Shore, thank you for standing with us throughout Fiscal Year 2026. Your encouragement, partnership, and unwavering support have made a lasting impact on the lives of our community's most vulnerable children. We are honored to share this year's accomplishments with you and look forward to continuing this important work together.

With heartfelt gratitude,

Susan Schumacher
Executive Director

TOGETHER, WE MAKE AN IMPACT

CASA OF THE MID-SHORE CELEBRATES ITS VOLUNTEERS

In recognition of National Volunteer Appreciation Week, CASA of the Mid-Shore hosted a celebratory reception at the Tidewater Inn in Easton on April 22 to honor its Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteers from Talbot, Dorchester, Queen Anne's, and Kent counties. These volunteers play a vital role in standing against child abuse and advocating for children who have experienced maltreatment.

The event was attended by the Honorable Philip Cronan, the Honorable Lynn Knight, the Honorable Jamie Adkins, and the Honorable Mary O'Donnell, along with CASA's Board of Directors, staff, and community supporters. Together, they gathered to recognize the dedication of CASA volunteers who serve some of the most vulnerable children in the region.

Board President Bob Cowin, a former CASA volunteer, welcomed guests and shared a powerful reflection on his experience. He spoke about advocating for one child over six and a half years, during which the child experienced nine different home placements, five DSS caseworkers, eleven therapists, and numerous teachers and counselors, but only one CASA volunteer. Cowin emphasized that this consistency is the heart of CASA's mission: providing a stable, supportive adult presence for a child's best interests in every setting, from the courtroom to the classroom.

Cowin expressed deep appreciation for the volunteers' time, energy, and compassion. He noted that the organization's strength comes from the remarkable individuals who bring CASA's mission to life, serving as a vital voice for children who need it most.

CASA's Executive Director, Susan Schumacher, opened the awards ceremony with a warm, lighthearted presentation that honored each current CASA volunteer, celebrating the unique style and personality each brings to the role. The room was filled with laughter, energy, and a shared sense of purpose.

The afternoon also held a deeply moving moment, as Schumacher read a letter imagined from the perspective of children who grew up with a CASA by their side—offering a heartfelt answer to a simple but powerful question: what would we say to you now?

"When we were kids, our worlds were turned upside down. We were scared, angry, confused—sometimes we acted out, sometimes we shut down, and sometimes we just tried to disappear. More than anything, we felt like we didn't belong anywhere, like no one was truly ours.

But there was always one person who stayed—you, my CASA.

You showed up again and again. You listened when we talked, and even when we didn't. You met us where we were, whether that meant long drives, quick meals, or hard conversations. You noticed the small things others missed, stood up for us when something wasn't right, and made sure our voices were heard. You were there for the big moments—court dates, school meetings—but also the quiet ones, celebrating our progress and reminding us we mattered.

At the time, we didn't have the words for it. But we felt it. We didn't always understand what you were doing. Now we do.

You gave us something steady in a life that wasn't. You treated us with dignity, respected our families even when things were complicated, and showed us that our future didn't have to look like our past. You believed in us when we couldn't believe in ourselves. And that changed everything. Because of you, we're stronger. We have hope. We know our worth."

Schumacher ended with, "This letter may be imagined but the impact a CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) makes in the lives of vulnerable children and youth is profoundly real."

CASA of the Mid-Shore is a consistent presence and voice for children placed under court protection due to abuse or neglect. CASA's vision is that children will thrive in safe, loving, and permanent homes.

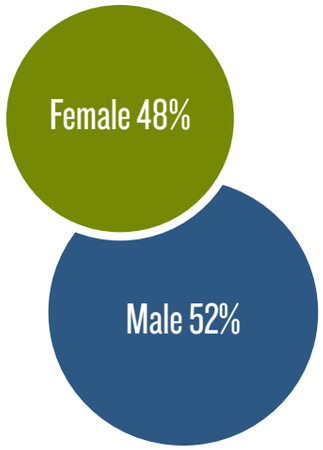
CASA MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

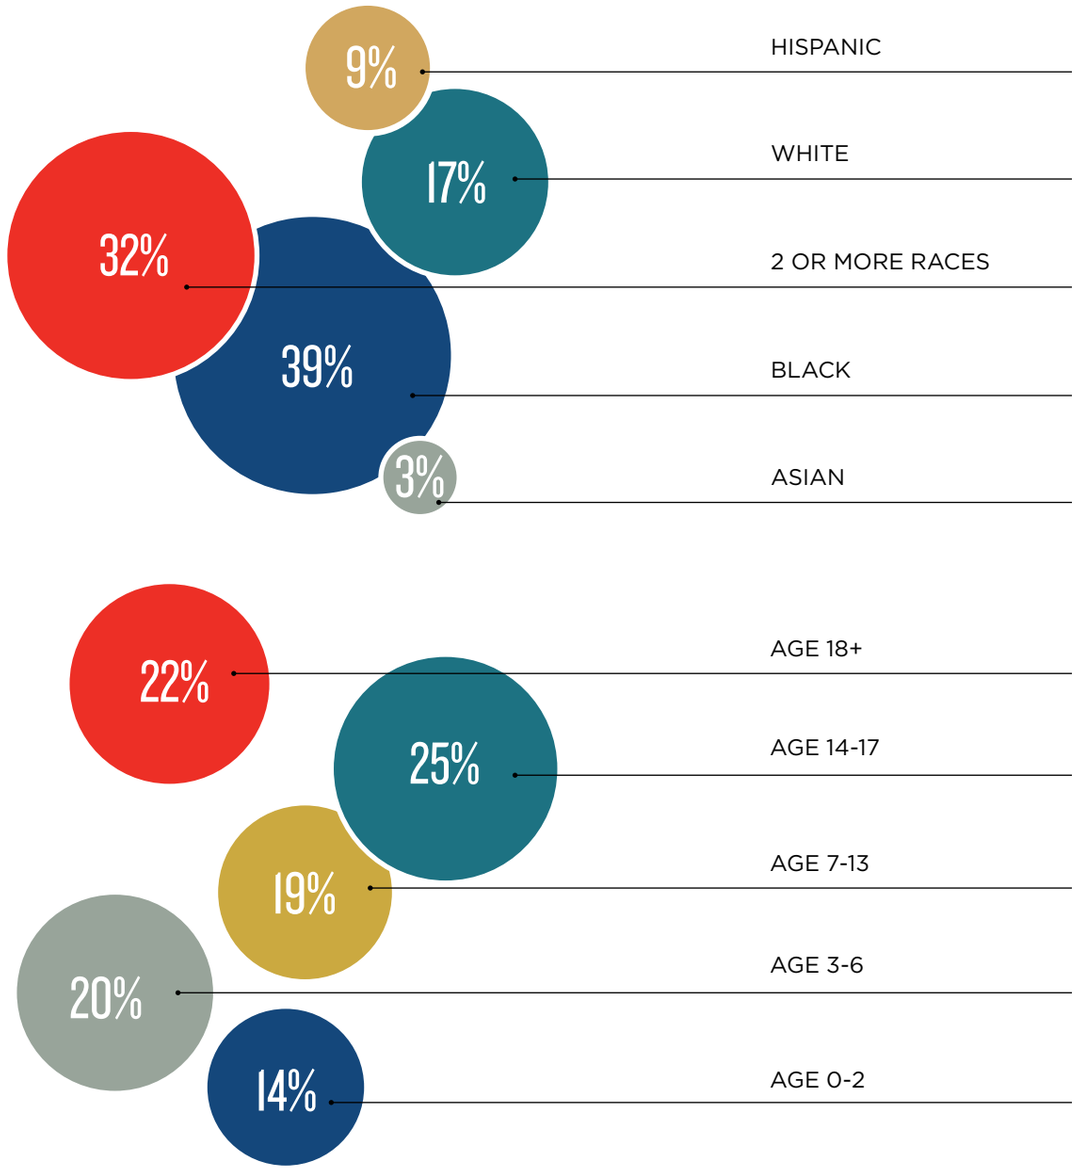
Studies have shown that a child with a CASA volunteer:

- Is moved less frequently from placement to placement
- May spend less time in foster care
- Is more likely to be placed with siblings
- Has their needs identified sooner, resulting in quicker service provision to meet those needs
- Performs better in school
- Is less likely to re-enter the child welfare system after their case closes
- Knows their CASA to be a steady, consistent adult role model in their life

THE CHILDREN WE SERVE

The children we serve are under court protection because of abuse, neglect, or abandonment. They are referred to our program by the Circuit Courts in Talbot, Dorchester, Queen Anne's, and Kent Counties. Confidentiality laws protect their privacy, rightly so. We are able, however, to share some general information that you may find of interest. This page provides a snapshot of the ages, gender, and racial identity of the children we served between July 1, 2025 and June 30, 2026.





Numbers Help Tell the Story!

5 new CASAs joined the team!

We made 790 recommendations in our court reports about what our appointed children need to thrive.

97% of our recommendations about what children need and want were accepted by the courts.

Our CASA volunteers invested hundreds of hours advocating for children.

Of the 15 children whose cases closed:

- 7 were adopted by families known to and loved by the children
- 7 achieved custody/guardianship to a relative or non-relative
- 1 reached the age of majority and is working hard to succeed while living independently

Beyond measures: smiles shared; one-on-one visits between children and their CASAs; tiny victories in children's lives; miles driven; emails; phone calls; text messages; hours spent in meetings with agency partners, writing court reports, attending court hearings, brainstorming with CASA Supervisors, fulfilling continuing education requirements, and assisting with siblings visits for those placed in different foster homes all helped facilitate positive outcomes for local children.

COMMENTS FROM THE JUDICIARY

"The value of CASA's work is evident in the thorough, balanced information and well-reasoned recommendations provided to the Court. CASA's contributions meaningfully assist judicial decision-making during some of the most sensitive and consequential proceedings affecting a child's life. CASA volunteers are exceptionally trained and well supervised, supported by highly capable staff who ensure preparation, accountability, and consistency."

THE HONORABLE PHILIP T. CRONAN, TALBOT COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

"CASA of the Mid-Shore has established itself as a trusted and effective partner within the broader child-serving community. The organization approaches its work with professionalism, consistency, and a clear understanding of the complex systems in which these children and families are navigating. Their collaboration with court personnel, local agencies, and service providers contributes meaningfully to a more coordinated and responsive system of care. "

THE HONORABLE WILLIAM H. JONES, DORCHESTER COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

"In my experience, CASA volunteers serving Queen Anne's County demonstrate thorough knowledge of their assigned cases and provide information to the Court that is thoughtful, well-prepared, and clearly grounded in the best interests of the child. CASA provides a level of involvement and advocacy that would otherwise be unavailable to many of these children. The quality of the program's contributions assists the Court to be more informed in its decision-making. I am confident that CASA's involvement will continue to contribute to positive outcomes for local children and families."

THE HONORABLE LYNN KNIGHT, QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

"CASA plays an important role in supporting the Court's efforts to promote safety, stability, and permanency for vulnerable children. CASA volunteers contribute thoughtful, well-informed perspectives that assist the Court in making informed decisions in the best interests of their appointed children. They also serve as a steady presence for children navigating difficult circumstances. I particularly value the volunteers' thorough understanding of their assigned cases and the care they bring to their work."

THE HONORABLE HARRIS P. MURPHY, KENT COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

2026 FINANCIALS

Adjustments and modifications may be identified during the annual audit.

Along with the dedication of our CASA volunteers, staff, Board of Directors, and other stakeholders, it is through the generous support of individuals, businesses, civic and faith-based groups, and grantors that we are able to serve children who need CASA volunteers advocating for what they need in order to thrive.

CASA of the Mid-Shore is committed to managing our finances with integrity and maintaining high standards in all program areas.

HONORING ROBIN DAVENPORT AND BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

In January 2026, CASA of the Mid-Shore bid farewell to Robin Davenport, who served as Executive Director for more than 35 years. Her retirement marked the close of an extraordinary career defined by visionary guidance, unwavering dedication, and a profound commitment to improving the lives of vulnerable children.

Her vision strengthened CASA's ability to expand its reach and deepen its impact, ensuring more children throughout the Mid-Shore region received consistent, compassionate advocacy.

Throughout Robin's tenure, she earned the trust and confidence of community partners, volunteers, donors, and the courts, building a strong foundation that continues today.
